Declination Page

Directions: Use this page when the designated employee elects NOT to be vaccinated and/or declines medical surveillance/screening services offered free of charge as part of the University of Connecticut Occupational Health and Safety Program for Animal Handlers. Maintain this form in the Environmental Health and Safety employee file.

I. Vaccination Declined

I decline the following vaccinations (initial box): ☐ Tetanus ☐ Other (specify)

I understand that due to my occupational exposure to animals used for research, teaching or testing, I may be at risk of acquiring disease. I have been given the opportunity to be vaccinated, at no charge to me. However, I decline the vaccination at this time. I understand that by declining this vaccine, I continue to be at risk of acquiring serious or fatal disease. If, in the future, I want to be vaccinated, I can receive the vaccination(s) at no charge to me.

II. Occupational Health Program Medical Services Declined

I decline the medical surveillance/screening services (Form B) offered as part of the University of Connecticut

Occupational Health and Safety Program for Animal Handlers. (initial box): ☐

I have been informed that due to the nature of my occupational exposure to animals, I may be at risk of acquiring a zoonotic, allergic or animal-related disease. The University of Connecticut has established a medical surveillance program for early detection, diagnosis and treatment of animal-related illnesses. I understand that the records from the program are confidential and that all expenses are paid by the University at no cost to myself. However, at this time, I choose to DECLINE the medical surveillance/screening services offered as part of the University of Connecticut Occupational Health and Safety Program for Animal Handlers. I am aware that I continue to be at risk of acquiring an animal-related illness. If in the future I continue to have occupational exposure to animals while employed at the University and I elect to actively participate in the University's medical surveillance/screening program, I may do so at no charge to me. I therefore decline at this time to complete Form B.

It serves as a baseline for when an employee seeks medical evaluation at the University of Connecticut Student Health Services or other approved healthcare practitioner. This is not a pre-employment, it is a pre-placement questionnaire, and it will not have any power in terms of deterring employment. Furthermore, newly hired employees are free to omit information one may feel is not relevant to the scope of one's job or to the care one may receive from the medical care provider.

FORM D (Non-animal users)

Animal Area Access for Non-Animal Users

Directions: Use this form when university personnel or university sanctioned visitors will be working in animal areas but anticipate no actual animal contact. You should be made aware of potential hazards involved in working within animal areas.

The University of Connecticut is actively involved in working with animals. In performing your assigned duties, you may at times come in contact with animals or their environment. Although minimal, there are some hazards that you should be aware of when working in areas that animals are being housed or maintained.

Animal Species Currently Used/Housed on Campus
Rodents	Sheep	Horses	Fish/amphibians
Rabbits	Cattle	Poultry/birds
Cats	Pigs	Reptiles

Animal related hazards include the following:

- Allergies
A small percentage of individuals may have allergic reactions to animals. If you experience hives, a runny nose or eyes, coughing or shortness of breath (asthma) when you enter an animal area, this may suggest some type of allergic reaction.
- Other hazards associated with animal areas:
  - Traumatic injuries, such as being stepped on, kicked, bitten or pinned against something by a large farm animal.
  - Animal related infectious (zoonotic) disease.
  - Chemical hazards (disinfectants/ flammables/ carcinogens/ toxins).
  - Machinery hazards.

Common practices that can protect you from animal related hazards:

- Before entering any animal housing areas, contact the animal facility manager or lab manager for safety instructions.
- If you are aware of any personal health conditions such as allergies or asthma that could prohibit you from working in animal areas inform your supervisor. Individuals with compromised immune systems and/or heart conditions should consult with a physician prior to working around animals, especially sheep.
- Practice personal hygiene and always wash your hands after leaving animal areas.
- Be careful around animal facility equipment.
- Do not enter animal rooms unaccompanied without proper training and authorization.
- Laboratories or animal rooms will be posted with specific hazard information and entry instructions if present.
- Necropsy rooms (Pathobiology) require biosafety clearance of the room prior to entry by maintenance personnel.
- Communicate any additional concerns directly to your supervisor.

I have read and understand this document. If I have any other questions I understand I can contact the lab or facility manager as well as Environmental Health & Safety.
